Wanted: Cool Cowgirls. Contestants are encouraged to come and try-out for the Elizabeth Stampede Royalty!

Jump start your summer, and be a part of the great sport of professional rodeo and the western way of life. Elizabeth Stampede royalty candidates are the ideal western-type girl who takes to heart the job of representing America's number one sport. She is a cowgirl, an athlete and a gifted communicator who knows her sport and works to educate the public and raise the awareness level of professional rodeo and the Elizabeth Stampede.

As an Elizabeth Stampede Rodeo Queen or Attendant you will be representing and promoting one of the treasured small-town rodeos in the state of Colorado. The Elizabeth Stampede Rodeo has won the acclaimed prize of PRCA best small-town rodeo eight times, and attracts over 17,000 people to the rodeo.

When you become 2009-2010 Elizabeth Stampede Queen or the 2009-2010 Attendant you will make lasting friendships, create memories that will last a lifetime and receive a scholarship for college.

To try out for royalty start by submitting your application no later than Friday, April 10, 2009. Contestants must be 14-17 years of age for attendant and ages 17-21 for Queen. Contestants will be judged on horsemanship, speech, interview, and fashion. The judged competition will be held on Saturday, April 18, 2009.

For more information and the competition applications, please visit the Elizabeth Stampede website at www.elizabethstampede.com, For more information call Mary Louise Vermillion, 303-646-1241 or cell 720-289-0104; Dana Asbridge, 303-345-5936 or Priscilla Schnell at 720-530-8305. We look forward to seeing you there!
